Name : Pastor Anita Malizzi

Theme: Great Expectations

Scripture: Jeremiah 33:1-3

Key Verse with translation listed:

Jer 33:3 'Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things, which you do not know.' NKJV

Meditation: What are you expecting from God? Are your expectations in line with what God says of Himself and what God says of His will? In Jeremiah 33:3 God directs the prophet to tell the people: "Call to Me, and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things which you do not know." Great and mighty things! Those things are what you have never yet seen or experienced - things you do not know! Will you believe God for those things or are you stuck in a place of unbelief because of your circumstances? Do you know that Jeremiah prophesied this word while he was confined in prison! Not exactly the place where you would be expecting God to speak of great and mighty things! We dare not allow our current circumstances to dictate what we believe God is capable of doing or what God will do! God is never bound by circumstances! God is never bound by anything! Regardless of your current situation will you call out to God and believe Him to show you great and mighty things which are far beyond anything you have ever imagined? Don't settle for less than what God has in mind! Don't lower your expectations of what God will do on your behalf as you call to Him!

Prayer: Lord, I determine today to now allow my current circumstances to bind me to a low level of expectation. NO! Today I declare that I will raise my level of expectation to come into line with Your Word, O Lord! For Your word never fails! Your word always performs! I will call out to You, O Lord, and I do expect You to perform the great and mighty things You Yourself have declared will come to pass. In Jesus' holy name, I pray! AMEN!
