21 Days of Prayer & Fasting
Hopewell Christian Fellowship Daily Devotional

Day 13 - January 14, 2009

Pastor Anita Malizzi

Theme: Resting in His Covenant Hand

Scripture: Isaiah 41:10

Key Verse:

Isa 41:10 Fear not, for I am with you; Be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, Yes, I will help you, I will uphold you with My righteous right hand.' NKJV

Meditation: There are many challenges that we all face in this life. No one is exempt from dealing with challenging situations so we need to be ready. God wants us to enter this new year with total confidence in Him and without any fear. As we begin the year with fasting and prayer we are preparing ourselves for whatever we may encounter in the year ahead. We may very well be heading off attacks that would otherwise come our way. As we fast and pray we are strengthened in the spirit with increased sensitivity to hear from God and be positioned to follow His lead through to victory. He is always with you and He will truly help you in all situations. He will uphold you with His righteous right hand which is the hand of covenant. He established that covenant with you and He will uphold it, for God never breaks His covenant. Silence the voice of fear by resting in the hands of your covenant-keeping God. Be strengthened as you rest knowing that God will truly uphold you with His righteous right hand.

Prayer: Lord, I thank You that You see all things concerning my life and You love me with an everlasting love. I thank You that You uphold me with Your righteous right hand of covenant and therefore I will not fall. I trust You to protect me and to lead me through all circumstances of life and I determine to rest in You, the One who is trustworthy in all things.
